

CONTENTS

Session I: Fluorosis

Suitability of the TF-Dental Fluorosis Index for Detection of Fluoride Sources	7-11
L Mabelya, H A van't Hof, H W van Palenstein Helderma and K G König, Tanzania and Holland
Fluoride Levels in Water and Endemic Fluorosis in Ethiopian Rift Valley ..	12-16
R Tekle-Haimanot, A Fekadu, B Bushera and Y Mekonnen, Ethiopia.
The Occurrence of Fluoride Contaminated Magadi (Trona) in Kenya and Tanzania.....	117-22
J M Nielsen and E Dahi, Denmark
Severe Fluorosis in Children Consuming Fluoride Containing Magadi.....	23-28
W H van Palenstein Helderma, E Mkasabuni, H Mjengera and L Mabelya, Holland and Tanzania
Fluoride and Fluorosis in the Sudan.....	29-32
Y Ibrahim, A A Affan and K Bjorvatn, Sudan and Norway

Session II: Processes & Mechanisms

Mechanisms of Defluoridation of Drinking Water by Tricalcium Phosphate.....	33-38
G L He, Y Chang and R D Ji, China
Effect of pH on Defluoridation of Water by Magnesite	39-43
J J Singano, D A Mashauri, E Dahi and F W Mtalo, Tanzania and Denmark
Sorption Isotherms of Fluoride on Flocculated Alumina	44-48
E Dahi, H Bregnhøj, and L Orio, Denmark
Use of Activated Clay for Defluoridation of Water.....	49-55
K Bjorvatn and A Bårdsen, Norway
Fluoride Sorption Isotherm in Fired Clay	56-59
A Bårdsen and K Bjorvatn, Norway

Session III: Process Kinetics

Optimum Operation of Counter-Current Water Defluoridation System	60-64
D S Bhargava, India
Kinetics of Uptake of Fluoride on Bone Char in Batch	65-76
H Bregnhøj and E Dahi, Denmark
Kinetics of Defluoridation of Water by Calcined Magnesite and Clay	77-83
E Dahi, J Singano and J M Nielsen, Denmark
Modelling Defluoridation of Water in Bone Char Columns.....	84-95
H Bregnhøj, E Dahi and M Jensen, Denmark

Session IV: Testing/Preparation Methods

Significance of Oxygen in Processing of Bone Char for Defluoridation of Water	96-103
E Dahi and H Bregnhøj, Denmark
Measurement of Fluoride in Magadi.....	104-108
J M Nielsen and E Dahi, Denmark

Session V: Field Experiences

Water Defluoridation for Rural Fluoride Affected Communities in Tanzania.....	109-114
F J Gumbo and G Mkongo, Tanzania
The Applied ICOH Defluoridator	115-117
S Rajchagool, Thailand
